

WORKSHOP AGENDA

“Undocumented Vietnamese labour migration to the UK and the Modern Slavery agenda”

Monday 19th March 2018, Oxford Brookes University

9.00- 9.30am: Coffee and registration

9.30 -9.40 am: Opening Welcome and Introduction:

9.40-10.30 am: Newton team presentations: Vietnamese migration to the UK:

'The Migration from Vietnam to UK – Background, Reasons and Trends'
Dr Phuc Nguyen (Trung Vuong University, Hanoi)

'Beyond victimhood?: Vietnamese migrants in the UK'
Dr Tamsin Barber (Oxford Brookes University) & Hai Nguyen (Kings College London)

10.30am- 12pm: Panel 1: Vietnamese Migrants to Europe

'Undocumented Vietnamese Migrants in Paris: Some Preliminary Thoughts about the Temporalities of Debt-Financed Migration and Precarity'

Dr Nicolas Lainez (Institut de Recherche Interdisciplinaire sur les Enjeux Sociaux, France)

'Vietnamese migration to East London: connecting home, work and urban mobility'
Dr Annabelle Wilkins (Southampton University)

Discussant: Dr Maja Cederberg, Oxford Brookes University

12-1pm: Lunch

1pm - 2.30pm: Panel 2: Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery

'Undocumented Vietnamese Migrants in the United Kingdom: The Experience of Alliance Anti-Traffic in Dealing with Returnees, Government Officials and Civil Society' Georges Blanchard (Director of AAT- Alliance Anti Trafic, Ho Chi Minh City)

'The Modern Slavery agenda and human trafficking'
Mike Dottridge, (Consultant - Human rights and child rights, with a special focus on exploitation)

Discussant: Prof Priya Deshingkar, University of Sussex

2.30-2.45pm: coffee break

2.45 – 3.45pm: Keynote Lecture by Prof Julia O'Connell Davidson (Bristol University)

Modern Slavery and State Control of Mobility

4.00-5.00pm: Roundtable discussion

Researching undocumented Vietnamese labour migrants within the Modern Slavery/Trafficking nexus.

5-6pm Drinks reception

By invitation only: Please register by emailing: Dr Tamsin Barber t.barber@brookes.ac.uk