

'Undocumented Vietnamese labour migration to the UK and the Modern Slavery agenda'

OXFORD
BROOKES
UNIVERSITY

Newton
Fund

BRITISH ACADEMY
for the humanities and social sciences

TRUNG YUONG
UNIVERSITY

Monday 19th March 2018

Panel 1: Vietnamese migration to the UK:

'The Migration from Vietnam to UK – Background, Reasons and Trends'

Dr Phuc Nguyen (Tru'ng Vu'o'ung University, Hanoi)

'Beyond victimhood?: Vietnamese migrants in the UK'

Dr Tamsin Barber (Oxford Brookes University) & Hai Nguyen (Kings College London)

Panel 2: Vietnamese Migrants to Europe

'Undocumented Vietnamese Migrants in Paris: Some Preliminary Thoughts about the Temporalities of Debt-Financed Migration and Precarity'

Dr Nicolas Lainez (Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales, Paris)

'Vietnamese migration to East London: connecting home, work and urban mobility'

Dr Annabelle Wilkins (Southampton University)

Panel 3: Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery of the Vietnamese

'Undocumented Vietnamese Migrants in the United Kingdom: The Experience of Alliance Anti-Traffic in Dealing with Returnees, Government Officials and Civil Society'

Georges Blanchard (Director of AAT- Alliance Anti Trafic, Ho Chi Minh City)

'The Modern Slavery agenda and human trafficking'

Mike Dottridge,

(Consultant on Human rights and child rights, with a special focus on exploitation)

Keynote Lecture

Modern Slavery and State Control of Mobility

by Prof Julia O'Connell Davidson (Bristol University)

By invitation only, please register by emailing
Dr Tamsin Barber: t.barber@brookes.ac.uk

Website: www.vietlabuk.org

